NJ Advance Media Names CRP Industries A Winner Of The New Jersey Top Workplaces 2025 Award

Cranbury, N.J. – CRP Industries, a leader in the automotive parts and industrial products sectors, has been recognized by NJ.com as a New Jersey Top Workplace for 2025. This award is based entirely on feedback from CRP team members, gathered through a third-party survey. The award highlights organizations that cultivate strong, people-focused cultures where employees feel valued, connected, and supported.

At CRP, that culture is shaped by a deep commitment to its purpose: Building a sustainable community where people and machines perform at their best. Guided by its vision and core values; quality, service, trust, CRP fosters an environment where employees can grow, collaborate, and make a meaningful impact.

“We strive to build an environment where our employees can perform at their best and learn every day,” said Daniel Schildge, CEO of CRP Industries. “We’re excited to be honored again as one of New Jersey’s top workplaces and appreciate the recognition for the progress we’re making.”

CRP continues to invest in its people through flexible work practices, career development opportunities, wellness initiatives, and a commitment to open communication. These efforts help ensure that every employee feels part of One Team, working toward shared goals and long-term success.
